Dear Parishioners;

The last Sunday of the liturgical year is always the feast of Christ the King. Next Sunday will be the first Sunday of Advent. The feast of Christ the King might seem a little odd for Americans to be celebrating. Despite our continued affection for members of the British royal family, the founders of this nation rebelled against King George III, the great, great, great, great, great, great, great grandfather of Prince William. Even in my own life time the number of ruling royal families has decreased; nonetheless, those that remain are generally symbolic heads of state with few formal political duties. More so they are recognized as unelected representatives of their nation. Not dependent on elections they remain above the political fray and represent all of their people without regard to parties.

The modern royals, not just in Great Britain, but in many other countries, though usually with little political power, do embody the hopes, aspirations, loyalties, sensibilities, cultural traditions and patriotism of their people. Because royalty usually springs from one family with a history that extends back several centuries, royalty gives a country a degree of permanence and stability. This modern royal roll gives us a sense of the meaning of the feast of Christ the King.

Our first reading from the prophet Ezekiel presents the ancient Hebrew kings in their best light - they were to be shepherds of their people. The concerns of a shepherd are the feeding and protection of his flock. So too a king must provide for the nourishment and protection of his people.

The death and Resurrection of Jesus are at the core and heart of St. Paul's faith. He bases his confidence on what God will do on the basis of what God has done. Jesus is the first fruits and like a good shepherd, He leads His flock. "So too in Christ shall all be brought to life but each one in proper order: Christ (is) the first fruits; then, at His coming, those who belong to Christ (His flock)".

Finally in the Gospel the theme of the shepherd appears again. This reading from St. Matthew is the only detailed New Testament narrative of the final judgment. Our Lord lived much closer to nature than we do, so naturally enough the judgment scene is couched in rural terms. The sheep (the saved) are separated from the condemned (the goats). Those welcomed into the kingdom "prepared for you from the foundation of the world" (this expresses God's will for us) for when I was hungry you fed me.. thirsty you gave me a drink ...naked you clothed me, away from home you welcomed me, in the prison or ill, you visited me. The listeners are flabbergasted! "Lord when did we see you in any of those situations? You didn't but "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for the least of my brethren you did for me." The other group oddly enough asks the same question: Lord when did we see you in any of those situations but fail to assist you? Again: "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did not do for one of these least one, you did not do for Me."

In St. Matthew's view what counts first and foremost is that we serve the Lord by serving those in need. To do so means to follow the Shepherd into the "kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world". Not to do so can lead to eternal punishment. The Shepherd guides His people in right paths. This then is Jesus' kingship. It does what a king or queen was meant to do - shepherd the people! Following our good Shepherd we shall not want ... we will be led to green pastures ... we will be led to restful waters ... our souls will find rest as are we guided in right paths. The table is spread before us ... our heads anointed and our cups flowing over even in the sight of our foes. (Paraphrase of the 23rd Psalm). Subjects of this King will dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come.

In Christ,
Monsignor McGuirl

'TIS THE SEASON

Our Giving Tree and ornaments will be in place in the Church vestibule next weekend for the first Sunday of Advent. This year, as in the past, we will be collecting gifts for Catholic Charities, and our own homebound parishioners. Please hang an ornament on the tree and drop off your gift for the charity noted on your ornament in the box provided in the vestibule or at the Rectory no later than December 15th. Your thoughtfulness always makes Christmas bright for many less fortunate than ourselves, and your generosity is greatly appreciated.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY

Please join us for our Annual Tree Lighting ceremony on Saturday, December 9th after the 5 P.M. Mass. Join in the Blessing and sing a few carols around the tree. Afterwards, come down to the Parish Hall for refreshments, purchasing of holiday greenery, and comradery.

Santa himself will be joining in the festivities. Bring those wish lists!

We could use some help in decorating the wreaths that will be sold, as well as our Parish Hall, for the festivities. Decorating will be on Friday, Dec.8th from 7:30pm to 9:00pm in the Parish Hall.

CHRISTMAS CHURCH DÉCOR

Since it is so nice to see fresh flowers at weekend Masses as part of our memorial donation, we would like to add to our Christmas décor by offering the opportunity for 15 Memorials in honor of a loved one. Each memorial will cover the expense of one fresh Christmas wreath and several poinsettias used to decorate the church. These will remain in place for the three weeks of the Christmas season. The cost remains $150.00. Memorials will be published. If you would like to memorialize a loved one in this way please contact the Rectory Office at 718-268-6143 by December 15th. Once the Christmas Season ends, we will return to our weekly floral offerings.
