Dear Parishioners;

Thankfully the Advent Sunday readings are familiar to most of us. The first reading taken again from the Prophet Isaiah is introduced by words that eventually would find a prominent place in Handel's oratorio, The Messiah. "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem.." The Prophet looks forward to a time when the sins of the people would be expiated and their punishment would be ended.

In New York City we are familiar with road work. Signs warning of "roadwork ahead " are regular parts of our urban landscape. Road crews have an uphill battle to fill in potholes and maintain our streets and highways so that they can be used safely and comfortably. In the ancient world, the visitation of a king or an important personage meant that the locals made sure that the roads, no matter how primitive, were repaired. By repairing and straightening the roads they were sending the visiting dignitary a message that he or she was welcome and that the people desired to give them a comfortable and safe welcome. Isaiah uses this poetic language to describe a future time when God would visit His people. Prepare ye the way of the Lord - straighten the roads - fill in the valleys, lower the mountains - smooth the rugged land and then proclaim: "Here is your God!" .

Many centuries later St. Mark quotes Isaiah directly but in His Gospel he introduces us to the one who would prepare the ways of the Lord: John the Baptizer (Baptist). Out of all Biblical characters, John is unique. He focused on one thing only: the arrival of the One, "mightier than I (who) is coming after me." The One coming will baptize with the power of God - the Holy Spirit. John cared not a thing about style - he wore a camel hair tunic and leather belt! He was not concerned about his diet; bugs and wild honey sustained him physically! What he cared about is of ultimate importance: "prepare ye the way of the Lord - make straight His paths". When and how? Isaiah did not know the "when" yet in magnificent poetry he yearned for the vindication of God.

Both St. Mark and St Peter, who authored our second reading, knew that the Lord had come as a Child born in Bethlehem of Judea. But both of them are also looking forward to the Second Coming. Peter especially warns his people to be ready but not to try to predict the day. "Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day". We are given more time to prepare ourselves because God does not wish anyone to perish!

So, in this second week of Advent, we commemorate the coming of the long expected One on that first Christmas. We reflect on and prepare for His coming in the future. That future coming is two-pronged: the encounter with the Lord at the passing of our days here and then the ultimate and final vindication at the end of all things. Practically speaking, it is the first of the two that is of more immediate concern. But quoting St Peter again; "Therefore beloved. since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before Him, at peace."

In Christ,
Monsignor John A. McGuirl

Attention - Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist!!!

Each pastor has the serious obligation of insuring that the faithful, entrusted to his care, have the availability of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist. Many of our homebound parishioners are served regularly by our volunteer Extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist. These men and women are the vehicles through whom Jesus reaches His people. Therefore each pastor has the obligation to know who is being served. Either he or his associate must try to provide enough ministers for the people requiring the Blessed Sacrament.

Unfortunately exactly which parishioners are being visited is not fully known. Some of our homebound may occasionally wish to receive the Sacraments of Penance or the Anointing of the Sick. Our Bishop also requires information about the services given to our infirm, aged or homebound parishioners. Recently compliance with the Bishop's requests has relied to a great degree on guesswork.

In order to have a handle on those being served, it was determined at our recent meeting that a book would be kept in the sacristy. Any Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, who visits the sick or homebound, is asked to list alphabetically the name of the person(s) that they have visited. The book is arranged alphabetically. Periodically each minister should note the frequency of their visits (weekly, bi-weekly, monthly etc...) on the same appropriate page. Implementation of this policy will begin this weekend and it is my hope and that of Father Greg, that our homebound, yet often most faithful parishioners, are being served reasonably and adequately.

Thank you for your service!
Monsignor John A. McGuirl

DINNER IS SERVED!!

Our Lady of Mercy in cooperation with California Pizza Kitchen is participating in a fund raiser to benefit Our Lady of Mercy Parish. On December 13th come to the restaurant located in Atlas Park any time from 11:00 AM to 10:00PM and have lunch or dinner. Our Lady of Mercy receives 20% of every meal served. Make sure to follow the restaurant's donation instructions. Please go to <https://www.groupraise.com/events/44421> and make your reservations for that day or bring the flyer that was provided in last week's bulletin and present it to your server to make sure they know you are from Mercy.

We need at least 30 people to sign in. We have 15. We're on our way. You can also do some shopping to help Santa fill his sleigh. See you there!!

'TIS THE SEASON

Our Giving Tree and ornaments are in place in the Church vestibule. This year, as in the past, we will be collecting gifts for Catholic Charities, and our own homebound parishioners. Please hang an ornament on the tree and drop off your gift, noted on your ornament, in the box provided in the vestibule or at the Rectory no later than December 15th. Your thoughtfulness always makes Christmas bright for many less fortunate than ourselves, and your generosity is greatly appreciated.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY

Please join us for our Annual Tree Lighting ceremony on Saturday, December 9th after the 5 P.M. Mass. Join in the Blessing and sing a few carols around the tree. Afterwards, come down to the Parish Hall for refreshments, purchasing of holiday greenery, and comradery.

Santa himself will be joining in the festivities. Bring those wish lists!

CHRISTMAS CHURCH DÉCOR

Since it is so nice to see fresh flowers at weekend Masses as part of our memorial donation, we would like to add to our Christmas décor by offering the opportunity for 15 Memorials in honor of a loved one. Each memorial will cover the expense of one fresh Christmas wreath and several poinsettias used to decorate the church. These will remain in place for the three weeks of the Christmas season. The cost remains $150.00. Memorials will be published. If you would like to memorialize a loved one in this way please contact the Rectory Office at 718-268-6143 by December 15th. Once the Christmas Season ends, we will return to our weekly floral offerings.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

Each year, we have some local families who come to us requesting our help in providing Christmas gifts for their children. We try to support these families by providing new gifts of toys and clothing for the parents to place under the tree for their children. If you would like to "adopt" and assist one of these needy families through our "Be An Angel" program, please contact Deacon Dean Dobbins at 718-261-6285 for further details

MAKE CHRISTMAS BRIGHT FOR OUR HOME BOUND

We would like to present Christmas gifts to our home bound parishioners. So, if you are interested in this valuable ministry, please join our choir by contacting Jane Lawson (Director of Music) at the rectory or after Mass on the weekends in Church.

OLM CONSOLATION MINISTRY NEEDS HELP

At present, there are not many active members in our consolation Ministry. The "precious few" that we have, work tirelessly to make sure that no parishioner finds it necessary to deal with the loss of a loved one alone. By helping families through the difficult process of handling final arrangements for services, the Consolation Minister actually makes an unpleasant experience a bit easier to bear. Please consider joining those who are already performing this valuable ministry. Call or stop by the Rectory if you are interested in helping, or if you would like to know more about this ministry.

SIMBANG GABI

The Society of St. Lawrence Ruiz (SSLR) will celebrate Simbang Gabi on Saturday, December 16, 2017 at 5:00pm.

The history of "Simbang Gabi" is a long treasured Philippine tradition originally a series of "dawn Masses" for nine consecutive days before Christmas Day. Its liturgical significance emanates from the Season of Advent, being the time of spiritual preparation and purification to worthily welcome and receive the Child Jesus in our midst. The Mass at dawn or Evening Mass, is a nine day novena to the Blessed Mother. It starts every December 16th and is one of the longest and most important religious celebrations in the Philippines and has lasted over 600 years.

Here in the United States, Filipino immigrants brought with them this distinct tradition that is slowly taking root and thus the observance of this time of year is to honor this spiritual and cultural tradition significantly in California, New York, Chicago, New Jersey and even in the Hampton Roads Virginia. Slowly the tradition is gaining a strong and unequivocal support.

Fellowship will follow in the parish hall. All are welcome.
