Dear Parishioners,

The third Sunday of Advent traditionally is called "Gaudete" Sunday from the Latin word "Rejoice". On this Sunday, the clergy are permitted to wear rose colored vestments as a change from the more somber Advent violet or purple. There are two Sundays a year when this happens: the other is "Laetare" Sunday in Lent. This Sunday marks that fact that we are half way through Advent and that the celebration of Christ's birth is close at hand. As a result, we rejoice. Today's readings reflect that joy.

Joy is not the same as pleasure. The latter is a momentary feeling of satisfaction that comes from something external; such as great meal, a romantic encounter or an unexpected gift. Joy is an inner feeling of satisfaction. Joy is almost always recognized. It is a sense of well-being that flows from the knowledge that we are important and loved by the very Master of the universe. Not only that, but that He holds us in the palm of His hand and has an eternal destiny planned for each of us. Because of that, even the terminally ill or those facing martyrdom can manifest joy. They recognize that in time all will be made good.

In our first reading today, Isaiah, the prophet, acknowledges that God had poured His spirit into him "(to) bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted... to announce a year of favor from the Lord." Isaiah was not a fool; he lived eight hundred years before Jesus, at a tumultuous era in Israel's history, yet he yearned for a "day of vindication by our God."

The opening words of the second reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Thessalonians provides the title of this Sunday: "Gaudete" - "Rejoice, again I say rejoice". Paul too faced opposition and persecution and yet he could urge the Thessalonians to rejoice always.

Finally we meet John the Baptist (or Baptizer) in the third reading taken from the Gospel according to St. John the Evangelist. Though unusual in his diet and vesture, John the Baptist attracted many through the dynamism of his preaching. He too yearned for one who was to come "the thongs of His sandals I am not worthy to unloose". As we approach Christmas the readings reflect that mood of hopeful expectation. God is coming to His people and quite unexpectedly He will be "Emmanuel" - God with us. He will share our lives and bear our burdens so that we might have life with Him.

Advent commemorates that first coming in Bethlehem; it also reminds us of our personal encounter with God at the end of our lives here; and it points toward that unknown future when God will be all in all.

In Christ,
Monsignor John McGuirl

Christmas & New Year Schedules

For your convenience there is a separate flyer included in this week's bulletin. The flyer contains the full schedule for Christmas and the New Year. Please note it carefully. This year both holidays fall on a Monday, which can lead to a certain confusion particularly with the celebration of Christmas.

The Morning Masses on Sunday, December 24th are for the fourth Sunday of Advent! The celebration of Christmas begins with the 4:00 P.M. Mass on Sunday afternoon! "Midnight Mass" will be begin at 10:00 P.M. on December 24th so that people can arrive home at a reasonable hour. Before the "Midnight Mass" the choir will carol for about a half an hour.

If you would like to attend, The Forest Hills Gardens Corporation will have its annual Blessing of the Crèche in Station Square at 7:00 P.M. on December 24th. Our Lady of Mercy Parish is responsible for the blessing this year. After the blessing, usually Santa Claus makes an appearance.

Thank you,
Monsignor McGuirl

Please hang an ornament on the tree and drop off your gift, noted on your ornament, in the box provided in the vestibule

Please consider joining those who are already performing this valuable ministry. Call or stop by the Rectory if you are interested in helping, or if you would like to know more about this ministry.
